States' Animal Identification Statutes

STATE OF ARIZONA

Ariz. Rev. Stat. §§ 3-1207, 3-1214

Current through the Sixth Special Session, and legislation effective April 27, 2010 of the Second Regular Session of the Forty-Ninth Legislature (2010).

§ 3-1207. Cooperation with United States

A. In addition to other powers and duties conferred by law, the director may cooperate with the animal and plant health inspection service of the United States department of agriculture, or other agency of the United States vested with similar powers and duties, in:

1. The control of contagious or infectious diseases of animals, and contagious or infectious diseases of poultry.
2. The national animal identification system.

B. Inspectors of the animal and plant health inspection service may exercise all rights and authority granted to livestock officers, but they do not have enforcement powers granted to livestock officers.

C. Premises registration data, animal identification data and animal tracking data collected by the director from voluntary participants pursuant to the national animal identification system are not subject to disclosure pursuant to title 39.

§ 3-1214. National animal identification system voluntary participation

The director, department or any other officer, agency or instrumentality of this state shall not mandate or force participation in the national animal identification system.
