States' Animal Identification Statutes

STATE OF NORTH DAKOTA

N.D. Cent. Code §§ 36-19-25; 36-09-28

Current through the 2009 Regular Session

§ 36-09-25. Animal identification program--Administration

The North Dakota stockmen's association shall serve as the state's administrator and allocator for that portion of any federally sponsored animal identification program which pertains to cattle, horses, and mules.

§ 36-09-28. Premises and animal identification program--Open records--Exception

1. Except as provided in subsection 2, the following information is confidential and not subject to the open records requirements of section 44-04-18:

- a. Any information created, collected, or maintained by the state veterinarian or the North Dakota stockmen's association regarding premises or animal identification;
- b. The name and address of the owner of the premises or of any animals identified under this section; and
- c. The name and address of the lessee of any premises or of any animals identified under this section.

2. The state veterinarian may not release any information designated as confidential under subsection 1 except:

- a. Upon the written consent of every person identified or identifiable by the information;
- b. In accordance with federal law for the purpose of a national animal identification program;
- c. To any state or federal agency for the purposes of animal disease control and animal disease traceback;
- d. To the attorney general and any other law enforcement agency pursuing a criminal investigation; or
- e. Pursuant to an order issued by a court upon a showing of good cause.

3. This section does not preclude the exchange of information between the state veterinarian and the North Dakota stockmen's association.

4. A violation of this section is subject to section 44-04-21.2. For purposes of applying section 44-04-21.2, "public entity" includes any person that has contracted with the state for the provision of services related to the premises or animal identification program.
