1 NY Comp. Codes Rules & Regs. § 276.3

1 NY Comp. Codes Rules & Regs. § 276.4

Current through Register Vol. 46, No. 52, December 24, 2024.

1 NY Comp. Codes Rules & Regs. § 276.3- Codes.

(a) Each container of potentially hazardous food, as defined hereinafter, shall be marked with an identifying code which shall be permanently visible to the naked eye.

(1) Where the container does not permit the code to be embossed or inked, the label or other similar marking device may be legibly perforated or otherwise marked, provided that such label is securely affixed to the product container in a manner satisfactory to the commissioner.

(2) The required identification shall identify in code the establishment where packed and the period during which packed.

(3) The packing period shall be changed with sufficient frequency to enable identification of lots during their sale and distribution.

(4) Packing period codes may be changed on the basis of one of the following: intervals of every four to five hours; personnel shift changes; or batches, provided the containers comprising such batch do not extend over a period of more than one personnel shift.

(b) Definitions.

(1) Potentially hazardous food shall mean any perishable food which consists in whole or in part of milk or milk products, eggs, poultry, fish, shellfish or other ingredients capable of supporting rapid and progressive growth of infectious or toxigenic microorganisms.

(2) Perishable food shall mean any food of such type or in such condition as may spoil.

(3) Home processed food within the context of this Part shall mean any food processed in a private home or residence using only the ordinary kitchen facilities of that home or residence which are also used to prepare food for the owner thereof, his family, nonpaying guests and household and farm employees who reside therein, but shall exclude potentially hazardous foods as defined in this Part or thermally processed low-acid foods packaged in hermetically sealed containers as covered by Part 277 of this Chapter and acidified foods packed in closed containers, including but not limited to pickles and relishes prepared from low-acid fruits, vegetables, poultry, meat, meat products, fish or seafood.

1 NY Comp. Codes Rules & Regs. § 276.4– Application of general certification standards.

(a) Maple syrup and honey. Processors of maple syrup or honey who do not purchase maple syrup or honey from others for repackaging, and who do not combine maple syrup or honey with any other ingredients capable of supporting the growth of infectious or toxigenic organisms, shall be exempt from the licensing requirements of Article 20-C of the Agriculture and Markets Law, provided that such establishments are maintained in a sanitary condition and manner, and the following requirements shall be complied with:

- (1) Every practicable precaution shall be taken to exclude birds, insects (except those involved in the production of the product), rodents and other vermin and animals from the premises of the operation.
- (2) The use of insecticides, rodenticides and other pest control items in such establishments shall be permitted only under such precautions and restrictions as will prevent the contamination of the product.
- (3) Rooms, compartments, places, equipment and utensils used for preparing, storing or otherwise handling the product, and all other parts of the operating premises, shall be kept in a clean and sanitary condition.
- (4) There shall be no handling or storing of materials which may create insanitary conditions in any place or places where the product is prepared, stored or otherwise handled.
- (5) All equipment and utensils used in processing or handling the product shall be maintained in good repair to assure sanitary conditions in the operation.
- (6) All finished product containers must be clean, sanitary and properly labeled in compliance with the requirements of Part 259 of this Title.

(b) Home-processed foods.

Processors of home-processed foods who sell or offer for sale such foods shall be exempt from the licensing requirements of article 20-C, provided that the following conditions are met:
